Encouragement from Pastor Kirk

This month we remember and celebrate the most important event that occurred long ago. Good Friday and Easter! But as a result of what actually happened lives are daily changed still to this day. “Old things are passed away and behold all things are made new.” Those once under the wrath and judgment of God are now liberated from sin and experiencing peace with Him. ALL people are currently under His judgment but have the opportunity to be made right with God and forgiven of all wrongdoing and the commandments we have broken. If we repent and acknowledge our wrongdoing in offending a holy God and believe (commit, trust, rely on ) that Jesus Christ died (crucified on the cross) for our sin, was buried, and rose again from the dead we will have a righteous standing with God. What better life is there? To know that all your sin is forgiven! No longer in jeopardy of eternal separation from God. To experience the peace of God because you now have peace with God. That the created can wholeheartedly live for and love the Creator because He first loved us and made it all possible. This is true joy to find that all we were looking for is in Jesus Christ! He is everything and anything we will ever need and we need not look elsewhere!

Looking unto Jesus,
